INTRODUCTION TO THE SALE

---

FOREWORD

On behalf of the entire Archives International Auctions team, I would like to personally welcome you to our 106th auction and eighth event of 2025. We are proud to present 669 lots of rare and desirable U.S., Chinese, and worldwide banknotes, scripophily, U.S. colonial banknotes and fiscal documents, historic ephemera, and security printing ephemera. This sale also features exceptional numismatic material consigned from a variety of estates and longtime collections, many of which are appearing at auction for the very first time.

This one-day auction offers an impressive range: over 250 lots of world banknotes; 17 lots of U.S. and world coins; 80 lots of U.S. colonial banknotes, obsolete notes, fractional, and Confederate currency; more than 90 lots of U.S. large and small type notes, including national banknotes, Federal Reserve notes, legal tenders, and silver certificates; over 120 lots of historic and security printing ephemera, traveler's checks, and U.S. and world stamps and postal history; and concluding with nearly 90 lots of U.S. and world scripophily, highlighted by railroads, mining, banking and finance, historic bonds and shares, and many other fascinating subjects.

Among the numerous highlights are two extraordinary offerings: an extremely rare full set of Kingdom of Hawaii, Lahaina Seminary, Maui, ND (1843–44), six uncirculated banknotes—one of only four or five complete sets offered publicly in the last three decades—and a remarkable Republic of Nicaragua 1856 $25 issued military banknote signed by filibuster leader William Walker.

Looking ahead, our 107th auction will take place in late October and will feature an extensive scripophily collection from two major estates, including many bonds and shares not seen for decades. We are also actively seeking consignments for our Fall 2025 and Winter 2026 auctions, which will include U.S. and world banknotes, coins, scripophily, historic ephemera, security printing material, autographs, stamps, postal history, and other desirable numismatic and philatelic items. Please contact us to discuss participation in these exciting future sales.

The team at Archives International Auctions sincerely thanks you for your interest and support. We hope this auction adds both enjoyment and enrichment to your collecting journey, and we wish you continued health, happiness, and success.

Best of luck

Bob Schwartz

KEY TO CATALOGING

DEFINITIONS

SPECIMEN: An archival printing sample of a finished item, such as a stock certificate, banknote or stamp that is printed usually with "000000" serial numbers and may have "Specimen" overprinted on it and be punch canceled to invalidate it and prevent its use surreptitiously. Specimens were kept for a number of reasons, though usually as samples to give out to prospective customers to give them an idea of the type and quality of the work that the printing company was capable of doing. Usually specimens were printed in limited amounts at the beginning of a printing run to evaluate the quality of the printing work and color combinations at an early stage, rather than have an entire production run rejected due to some minor flaw that was not found until after the printing was completed. A specimen is similar to the final product, printed on the same paper and in the same color.

COLOR TRIAL SPECIMENS: Sometimes specimens would be printed in numerous color combinations not used on the final note for evaluation before a final printing. These are usually extremely rare.

PROOF: An initial pull or impression from a plate or die for evaluation of text, vignette, engraving, and esthetic appeal and to check for any errors or faults. These were usually printed on india paper mounted on card or printed on some form of paper or light card. The amount of proofs printed is usually extremely small and usually number only a handful. Proofs allowed the printing company to evaluate the quality of the item being printed without having to go to the expense of making final plates and finding out small errors that could have been repaired at an earlier stage. Usually, proofs are single impressions of banknotes, stamps, vignettes, etc. Anything that was made into a plate, such as a sheet of 100 stamps could have had proof impressions taken from it. These would be called plate proofs (for multiple images) versus die proofs (usually of a single or small amount of images).

ESSAY SPECIMEN or PROOF: A proposed design that was not used but may be similar or even totally different to a final approved design. An artist, engraver or company may have proposed a number of different designs and color combinations to a client for his approval. If a design is rejected and never used, it could be called an essay.

PRODUCTION MATERIAL: Material found in files used in the production of security printed documents, banknotes, stamps and such. It may include correspondence, photographs, artwork, and signature samples, samples of other printed items that are marked up with corrections as well as proofs, specimens, essays, models, mockups and issued final items.

MODEL: A proposed or final design that may include original artwork, pieces of design elements such as borders, titles, vignettes, corporate seals, undertints and possibly portions of photographs. Before an engraved item was made, a design had to be decided on. This portion of the design process allowed for the artistic skills of the engraver or design department to be exhibited. Before the "digital age", banknote engravers and designers would cut up portions of other engraved items and re-apply them in a different form or design to come up with a unique new stamp, banknote or certificate. Often, all new engravings or "vignettes" of people or scenes would be engraved first to include in the new "work of art", and other times, portions of different completed items would be "borrowed" to use on a newly designed item. All models are rare and almost all of them are unique.

Description Abbreviations I/C = Issued and Cancelled; I/U = Issued and Uncancelled; POC's = Punched out cancels

KINGDOM OF HAWAII

The Lahainaluna Seminary notes of 1843–44 represent one of the most fascinating intersections of education, printing, and early Hawaiian finance. Issued at Lahainaluna Seminary on Maui, the first institution of higher learning west of the Rocky Mountains, these notes were not merely a medium of exchange but a teaching tool. Founded by American missionaries in 1831, the seminary sought to bring literacy, commerce, and Western education to the Hawaiian Kingdom. Printing presses introduced at Lahainaluna produced textbooks, newspapers, and, remarkably, the Kingdom's earliest paper currency. This complete set of six denominations—1 Keneta through 1 Dala—captures that unique moment when a mission school, dedicated to “industry and labor,” became the birthplace of Hawaiian banknotes. Each note carries the simple yet symbolic imagery of a beehive, reflecting diligence and community. Over the last three decades, complete graded sets have appeared at auction only a handful of times, underscoring both their rarity and their historical importance. For collectors of Hawaiian material, early U.S. missionary history, or world banknotes of great cultural significance, the Lahainaluna Seminary series offers an exceptional opportunity to own a cornerstone of Hawaiian numismatics—currency that bridges the Kingdom's past and the dawn of modern finance in the Pacific.

NICARAGUA

The Republic of Nicaragua, 1856, $25 Military Pay Certificate signed by William Walker is a rare and historic artifact from one of Central America's most turbulent eras. Issued at Granada for "military services rendered to the State," it bears the signature of the American adventurer who briefly declared himself President of Nicaragua. Walker's controversial regime reinstated slavery and attempted to reshape the nation before a Central American coalition ousted him in 1857. This note offers collectors a direct link to the dramatic and short-lived rule of one of history's most infamous filibusters.

- 191 Nicaragua, Republic of Nicaragua, 1856, $25 Issued Military Banknote Signed by William Walker. Granada, Nicaragua, Republic of Nicaragua, 1856, $25 Military Script, Pick S131, S/N 893. Historic William Walker–signed military pay certificate issued during his brief presidency of Nicaragua. Printed on thin paper by El Nicaraguense Print, in black, with ornate side borders and bold title “TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS,” issued at Granada for “Military Services rendered to the State.” Hand-signed by William Walker, President of the Republic, and the Minister of Hacienda, with the Great Seal of the Republic impressed at lower left. This rare fiscal note is directly tied to one of the most turbulent episodes in Central American history. William Walker, an American physician, lawyer, and adventurer from Tennessee, launched a series of “filibustering” expeditions in Latin America during the 1850s. After failed attempts in Mexico, he turned to Nicaragua, where he exploited a civil conflict to seize power in 1856. Declaring himself President of Nicaragua, Walker sought to Americanize the country’s institutions, reinstated slavery (abolished years earlier), and attracted settlers and mercenaries from the United States. His regime provoked alarm among This example, serial number 893, is PMG graded Very Fine 25 NET with notation of tape repairs. The signatures, design elements, and embossing remain bold and distinct. Notes of this issue are seldom encountered, and Walker’s signed notes and documents are highly prized for their direct connection to the Central America filibuster era and to one of the most controversial figures of 19th-century Central American history. .... Hartford, Connecticut, 1781-82. William Moseley (1755-1824) later would serve in the Connecticut state senate. He was also the Director of the Hartford National Bank from 1797 to 1815. Fenn Wadsworth (1750/51-1785) was a brigade major to General James Wadsworth from 1776 to 1779. The Pay-Table (also known as the Committee of Four) managed Connecticut's military finances during the Revolutionary War. Financing the Revolution laid a heavy burden upon each colony, especially those which balked at levying taxes. In order to meet immediate needs, such as wages, the colonies relied upon wealthy revolutionists, foreign loans, and taxes and gifts from abroad. Issuing notes such as these was only a temporary solution. All are in VF condition. (3). Est. $160-250

Purple handstamp on title page denotes that this was once a part of the War Division's Record Division of Rebel Archives. The War Department Collection of Confederate Records consists of records of the Confederate States of America acquired by capture or surrender at the close of the Civil War and those later acquired by donation or purchase. On July 21, 1865, the Secretary of War established a unit in the Adjutant General's Office for the collection, safekeeping, and publication of the "Rebel Archives." The records were used in protecting the U.S. Government against claims arising from the war, in establishing pension claims, and for historical purposes. After many changes both in location and custody, the records were placed in the Organization Records Section of the Old Records Division of the Adjutant General's Office, from which they were transferred to the National Archives in 1938. .... - 573 D.C., B.E.P. Color Sample Book, 1912-14 Used for Colors Selection of the Washington-Franklin Postage Stamp Colors. Washington, D.C., B.E.P. Color Sample Book featuring all of the colors used on the 1912-14 Washington-Franklin Issues, from 1 Cent to $1.00, and also the 1914 Special Delivery (Dark Blue), and Postage Due (Dark Salmon red) stamps. The cover is leather bound with gold lettering "Specimen Book Postage Stamp Inks - Bureau of Engraving and Printing - 1914", the dimensions of each page is 6.25 x 2.75 inches, uniface, intaglio printed, with a portrait of Jackson in middle surrounded by an ornate frame and a lighter undertint in the same color, each page on the left has 3 different color bars showing the same color at different color densities with the denomination, and description of the related stamp (Ordinary, Special Delivery, or Postage Due, typed onto the margin). This color sample booklet was printed and designed in 1914 for use in the color selection of the updated Washington Franklin Issue stamp colors. During this time period, the Bureau was printing large sized banknotes (7.5 by 3.125 inches), up until 1928-29 when it switched to small size notes (6.25 by 2.6 inches). What is intriguing about this B.E.P. booklet is that not only the colors, which are attributed to the Washington-Franklin stamp issue of 1912-1914, but the size of this color sample page which is also an ornate banknote Look-a-like, with each page having the dimensions nearly identical to the 1928-29 small size banknote issues that the B.E.P. converted to in the manufacture of small size notes, but this was 14 to 15 years before the size was permanently changed. Its purpose was to sell farm and ranch tracts and profit from settlement and the advance of the Texas & Pacific along the old MEP&P right-of-way; capitalization was reported at about $5.34 million in $100 shares. Mismanagement and insider dealing dogged the enterprise, and although land sales continued (a small siding community, "Franco," took its name from the company), the charter expired in 1896 and the legislature allowed three additional years to wind up affairs. 1. Unless announced otherwise by the auctioneer, all bids are per lot, as numbered in the printed Catalogue. Archives International Auctions, as agent for the consignor or vendor, shall regulate the bidding and shall determine the manner in which the bidding shall be conducted. Archives International Auctions reserves the right to withdraw any lot prior to sale (without liability to any potential purchaser or agent), to re-offer any withdrawn lot, to divide a lot or to group two or more lots belonging to the same consignor or vendor, and to refuse any bid believed not made in good faith. Estimates of sales prices contained in the printed Catalogue reflect the best judgment of Archives International Auctions and are not minimum or upset prices.
2. (a) Bids shall be made in the steps set forth in paragraph 12.
(b) The highest bid acknowledged by the auctioneer shall prevail. Should a dispute arise between bidders (including a dispute between a floor bidder and the auctioneer acting on behalf of a mail bidder, consignor or vendor), the auctioneer alone shall determine who the successful bidder is and whether to reoffer the lot in dispute. Should a dispute arise after the sale, the auctioneer's sale records shall be conclusive. On all lots sold, a commission of 22%* on the hammer price is payable by the buyer to the auctioneer (*See exceptions on next page for bids on internet).
3. (a) The auctioneer reserves the right to bid on behalf of clients (and consignors or vendors) but shall not be liable for errors and omissions in executing instructions to bid, however received, and whether such errors or omissions be those of the bidder or agent or those of the auctioneer.
(b) Lots may be offered subject to a reserve price. The auctioneer may implement such reserve price by bidding on behalf of the consignor vendor.
(c) It may also be assumed that all consignors have been advanced monies against the sale of their consigned material and Archives International Auctions therefore has a security interest in the consigned material over and above the normal auction commission.
(d) Purchases made by a consignor or vendor or his agent on his own lots shall be considered as a sale subject to commissions and sales tax as applicable.
(e) Agents are responsible for the payment of the purchase price for all purchases made on behalf of their clients, unless other arrangements with the auctioneer have been confirmed in writing prior to the auction.

PAYMENT FOR PURCHASES

4. Payment for lots, including those on which opinions are desired (Condition of Sale 8), shall be as follows:
(a) Floor Bidders. Payment of the purchase price, or such part thereof as Archives International Auctions shall require, shall be made by the purchaser in cash or bank or certified check or in such other manner as Archives International Auctions may determine. The name and address of the purchaser of each lot shall be given to the auctioneer immediately following the sale of such lot.
(b) Mail Bidders. A successful mail bidder will be notified of lots purchased. Before Archives International Auctions will send such lots, payment in full must be received by Archives International Auctions within three (3) business days of receipt of the aforesaid notification by the mail bidder. However, a purchaser known to Archives International Auctions at its option may have purchases delivered or forwarded for immediate payment (by a dollar draft on a U.S. bank in the case of overseas purchasers). Mailed delivery will be to the address on the bid sheet and proof by Archives International Auctions of receipt of a sending at the advised address shall constitute delivery. All charges for handling, delivery and insurance obtained by Archives International Auctions on behalf of the purchaser shall be added to the purchase price; a minimum charge of $10.00 will be made. Risk of loss in transit shall be on the purchaser.
5. Title shall not pass to the purchaser until full payment has been received by Archives International Auctions as agents for the consignor or vendor.

6. (a) Purchasers agree to pay for lots as specified in Condition of Sale 4 (or as the same may be modified by Condition of Sale 8), and no credit is extended; a late payment charge of 2% per month or fraction thereof shall be added if payment is not made in accordance with the aforesaid conditions.
(b) In the event that a bidder shall fail to comply with these Conditions of Sale ("Non-Complying Bidder"), then, as to any lot with respect to which such failure to comply occurs, Archives International Auctions may, in its sole discretion, re-offer such lot during the same auction or at an auction at a later time, or by private treaty at such time as Archives International Auctions, in its sole discretion, deems appropriate and the Non-Complying Bidder shall be liable for the deficiency, if any, between the hammer price and the net proceeds of a sale to a subsequent purchaser, whether at auction or by private treaty, as well as for all costs and expenses of both sales, all other charges due thereunder, including commissions with respect to both sales, whether payable to Archives International Auctions or to a third party and all incidental damages. It shall be in Archives International Auctions' sole discretion to determine whether to re-offer the lot theretofore hammered-down to a Non-Complying Bidder at the same auction, or by private treaty in due course, or at a subsequent auction conducted by Archives International Auctions. In no event shall any surplus arising from the sale of a re-offered lot be payable to a Non-Complying Bidder.
(c) A defaulting purchaser shall be deemed to have granted Archives International Auctions a security interest in property in Archives International Auctions possession owned by such purchaser. Archives International Auctions shall have all of the rights afforded a purchase money secured party under the New York or New Jersey Uniform Commercial Code with respect to such property and may apply against such obligations all monies held or received by it for the account of, or due from Archives International Auctions to such purchaser. Archives International Auctions is authorized to file a Financing Statement in order to perfect its rights as a secured party.
(d) If Archives International Auctions takes any legal steps to secure payment of a delinquent account, the defaulting purchaser shall be liable for all legal and other expenses incurred by Archives International Auctions to secure such payment, including but not limited to a reasonable allowance for attorneys' fees. For purposes of this paragraph, the term legal steps shall be deemed to include any and all consultation by Archives International Auctions with its attorneys with respect to all matters arising out of a delinquent account.
(e) Unless otherwise acceptable to Archives International Auctions, payment is to be made only in the form of cash, bank check or certified check, credit card (Visa or MasterCard only) or a bank wire transfer.

EXHIBITION AND INSPECTION OF LOTS; QUALITY AND AUTHENTICITY

7. (a) On Premises Inspection only. Ample opportunity is given for on premises inspection prior to the auction date, and, upon written request and at Archives International Auctions discretion.
(b) Each lot is sold as genuine and correctly described, based on individual description as modified by any specific notations in this Catalogue.
(c) Quality. Any lot which a purchaser considers to be incorrectly described may be returned to Archives International Auctions within two weeks of its receipt by such purchaser ("Returning Purchaser"), provided, however, that the same is received by Archives International Auctions within four weeks of the date of the auction; however, Archives International Auctions may, in its discretion, refuse acceptance of such returned lot. If an opinion of a generally recognized authority is desired, the period of time within which a lot must be received by Archives International Auctions will be extended in accordance with Condition of Sale 8. In the event that a dispute cannot be resolved by reference to a generally recognized authority, and Archives International Auctions thereupon undertakes to re-offer the lot with a description identical to the description disputed, the Returning Purchaser shall be liable for the deficiency, if any, between the proceeds of the sale to the Returning Purchaser and the proceeds of a sale to a subsequent purchaser, as well as for all costs and expenses of the re-sale, including commission, and all incidental damages. Any lot, the description of which is disputed, must be returned in-
